Independent filmmaking often takes place outside Hollywood, or other major studio systems. An independent film or indie film is a film initially produced without financing or distribution from a major film studio. Creative, business and technological reasons have all contributed to the growth of the indie film scene in the late 20th and early 21st century. On the business side, the costs of big-budget studio films also lead to conservative choices in cast and crew. There is a trend in Hollywood towards co-financing over two-thirds of the films put out by Warner Bros. in 2000 were joint ventures, up from 10% in 1987.14 A hopeful director is almost never given the opportunity to get a job on a big-budget studio film unless he or she has significant industry experience in film or television. Also, the studios rarely produce films with unknown actors, particularly in lead roles.

Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on cinema : The COVID-19 pandemic has had a substantial impact on the film industry in 2020 and 2021, mirroring its impacts across all arts sectors. Across the world and to varying degrees, cinemas and movie theaters have been closed, festivals have been cancelled or postponed, and film releases have been moved to future dates or delayed indefinitely. Due to cinemas and movie theaters closing, the global box office has dropped by billions of dollars, streaming has seen a significant increase in popularity and the stock of film exhibitors has also dropped dramatically. Many blockbusters originally scheduled to be released since mid-March 2020 have been postponed or canceled around the world, with film productions also halted. This, in turn, has created openings for independent cinema productions to receive wider exposure.1

Chinese regulators, as well as the U.S. National Association of Theatre Owners, have highly discouraged film distributors from engaging in this practice, in defense of the cinema industry.145146 Trolls World Tour was released directly to video-on-demand rental upon its release on April 10,137 with limited theatrical screenings in the U.S. via drive-in cinemas.147 NBCUniversal CEO Jeff Shell told The Wall Street Journal on April 28 that the film had reached 0 million in revenue, and stated that the company had not ruled out performing releases in both formats as cinemas reopen.148149
